Sensible Furniture.

We mean by sensible furniture, furniture that is going to look well and wear well, without costing an absurd amount of money. It is our aim to keep sensible furniture, because we expect to deal with sensible people. Some people like to pay a fancy price for fancy articles -others think they save money by buying extremely cheap things which fall to pieces in a very short time; but ple prefer to give a reasonable price for reliable goods. Those are the people we wish to do business with.

FOUR DECADES OF WORK

Celebration of the Forty-third Anniversary of the Y. M. C. A.

PROGRAMME OF SERVICES

Memorial Meeting to Be Held at Foundry Church on Wednesday-Rev. Dr. George Elliott of Philadelphia Will Preach the Anniversary Sermon-Sketch of the Association.

The forty-third anniversary of the organization of the Young Men's Christian Association here will be celebrated next Wednesday. The memorial meeting will be held at Foundry Methodist Church, the greater number of peo- at 7:30 p.m. There will be music, reports of progress and addresses. The anniversary sermon will be preached by the Rev. George Elliott, D. D., poster of the Spring Garden M. E. Church, Philadelphia, the association will, for the first time in many years, come before the community entirely free from debt. It will be at the beginning of the work of erecting the spendid new home that its friends hope to see rise on the ruins of its recent fire, but nothing of this kind will be touched upon at this meeting. The exercises will be of a character to interest all classes, men, women, and children, and a good representation of all is expected. The music will be under the direction of Mr. Waliam K. Cohen, organist of Foundry Church. Two or three appropriate selections will open the meeting. This will be followed by an invocation by Rev. J. G. Butler, of Luther Place Latheran Church.

ADDRESSES TO BE MADE. Dr. O. A. Brown, of Feundry, will deliver an address of welcome and then representatives of the association will make reports from several departments. These will not be so much statistical as popular and entertaining. They will show what the association has done in the past year, so that it can be readily understood and remembered and will, to some extent, outline what it is hoped will be accomplished in the year to come, Dr. Elliott's address will deal, in a way to instruct and please, with some of the great problems now comaging the attention of the Christian world. He was from 1887 o 1892 paster of Foundry Church and for two years more before going to Phila-delphia was located at the Databarton Avenue Church in Georgetown here, so that he is very well known in this city and his name in itself will draw a good at-endance. But in addition ten-minute addresses will be made by several of the most popular pasters in the city.

These will be, if no change of plans becomes necessary, Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin of the Church of the Covenant, Rev. Alexander Mackaye-Smith of St. John's. Rev. 8, H. Green of Calvary Baptist. The close will be music and the benediction.

The idea of Christian Association organ ization and work came to this country from London where it was originated in 1844. Washington was one of the first places in America to take it up and has seen instrumental in its spread through the country.

BEGINNING OF THE WORK. The work started here in discussion be tween three young friends, Rev. Wm. C. Laugdon, recently deceased, who was then employed here, Win, J. Reese, then in the Smithsonian, where he now is chief clerk and Thos. H. Duncan, who is now an Episcopal minister at Earlville, Md. The first public meeting washeld in June, 1852. at the building then known as the Central Academy, at the northeast corner of Tenth and E streets, now used as a storage ware-house. It was presided over by the Rev. James Nourse

It was well attended and a committee on organization was appointed. There were representatives from the following churches: Estreet and First Baptist, Trinity Grace and Ascension Episcopal, McKendre Methodist, the Methodist Protestant, Meth odist South, and the First, Second, Fourth and F street Presbyterian.

On June 29, the same year, a second meeting was held, at which permanent of ficers were chosen as follows: Alexander H. Lawrence, president; William C. Langdon. orresponding sceretary, and William J. Reese, recording secretary. Ninety-one members signed the first constitution and paid their fees. Soon after Mr. Zaimon Richards was chosen president to suceed Mr. Lawrence, and is generally spoken of as the first presiding officer.

THE FIRST MEETING. The inaugural meeting was held in the lecture room of the Smithsonian and Senator R. N. Charlton of Virginia presided.

Meetings were held for a time at Central Academy, then in succession at the southeast corner of Seventh and E, at Parkinson, Pennsylvania avenue, opposite the Metropolitan Hotel, at the northeast corner of Eighth and H. over a saddler shop in Seventh street. In the old Metzerott Hall, between Ninth and Tenth, in Pennsylvania avenue, at Lincoln Hall, at Ninth and E. whence the association went to No. 1409 New York avenue, recently burned, and thence to the Lenman building.

Active work is going on preparatory to raising the funds for a new building. It is hoped to avoid going into debt. There was a meeting Saturday night of the building and finance committees at the residence

Dr. R. C. Flower of Boston Will Deliver His New Lecture Entitled

"Health, Happiness and Beauty of Women" At Willard's Hall, Washington, at 2 o'clock, Tuesday afterneon, Nov. 12.

This lecture will be delivered under the auspices of the "Women's Health Association" of New England.

If you would know how to regain lost health and preserve your health if you have it; if you would know how to get the greatest amount of happiness out of both single and married life; if you would know how to preserve your beauty and youthful looks far into the evening of life. then go and hear Dr. Flower.

Dr. Flower's friends claim that as a lecturer he has no superior, if equal, upon the American platform, and for wit, sar-casm, pathos and beauty of speech he has casm, pathos and occurry of speech he has no equal.

What the press says:

"Dr. R. C. Flower lectured yesterday afternoon in Assembly Hall to over 1,200 women, representing largely the wealth, culture and brains of the city. Never was an audience more enthusiastic in praise and applause than this vast assembly of women. They laughed and cried at the same time, "Philadelphia Times.

"Dr. R. C. Flower's lecture to women, at Assembly Hall, yesterday afternoon, was attended by nearly 1,500 ladies. The doctor had the sympathy of his large andience from the opening to the close of his lecture. The enthusiasm of his audience at times knew no bounds. No higher compliment could be paid the doctor than the remark of the President of the Chester Dr. S. H. Greene, pastor Calvary Baptist Church, "Needs of the work." Dr. Wallace Radeliffe, pastor New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, "The schol-ar's preparation." remark of the President of the Chester Club: 'A finer lecture was never delivered by man,' "-Philadelphia Press. "Dr. R. C. Flower lectured last night to nearly 3,000 people in Tremont Temple. His audience went wild over his eloquence, keen thrusts, pathetic appeals and quick sallies."—Boston Globe. "Never was a lecture better received nor an audience more highly entertained than at Tremont Temple last night. The lec-turer was Dr. R. C. Flower.—Boston Jour-nal."

"Br. R. C. Flower's lecture to ladies in Columbian Hall yesterday afternoon was the finest entertainment ever given the women of this city. Handreds were unable to gain admittance, while those who did enjoyed for an hour and forty minutes between laughter, applause and tears, the richest treat of the season.

"The Doctor's tribute to the married life and home, and his closing tribute to women, for eloquence, pathos and beauty of speech can never be outdone."—Lafayette (Ind.) Courier.
